From the Paulpit

The month of May is rapidly approaching. In the church, the month of May is traditionally known as a month we in particular offer up devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. So next Sunday, May 3rd, some of our children in the parish are going to go in procession in church and crown the statue of Mary and present flowers before it. This will be done at 11:20 am, ten minutes before the start of the 11:30 Mass. Of course everyone is welcome to come early to Mass that day and take part in this beautiful Marian devotion.

In addition to this devotion, I know I mentioned this last week, but just to remind you again, we are also participating in the "Pray a Million Rosaries" campaign for an end to abortion. The dates for this is May 1st through May 3rd. It is only appropriate to ask Mary for her intercession in protecting life in the mother's womb, seeing as how she had the Lord of life in her womb. On top of that, we also are participating in the "Pray 2009" with the Cayman Ministers Association. The dates for this "prayer-a-thon" is April 30th – May 9th. The time allotted to our parish in particular is April 30th 7:00 pm, until May 1st 7:00pm. It is always good of course to make use of our adoration chapel, but I wanted to encourage prayer in our chapel on the 1st of May in particular as part of the Pray 2009, and the Pray a Million Rosaries. I can't think of a better way to kick off the month of Mary.

Also, don't forget about the upcoming spring tea party on May 9th. Raffle tickets are quickly running out, so be sure to get your tickets soon. You can buy them after Mass if they are selling them there, and you can also buy them at the office.

God Bless,
Fr. Paul Ballien
