From the Pulpit

I have some good and exciting news for everyone. Our new music director, Mr. David Langevin, has arrived on island. Mr. Langevin comes from Massachusetts. He has a Bachelor of Music Degree and a Teacher Certification from the University of Massachusetts-Dartmouth. He also has 28 years of experience as a Liturgical Music Director in the United States. I know you will all give him a big welcome when you see him. Mr. Langevin will be serving primarily at St. Ignatius Church, and secondly, with the school. Mr. Albert Chin will continue to direct the music at Christ the Redeemer in West Bay.

Since we are talking about music, I thought this would be a good time to mention in particular, my sincere thanks and gratitude to Albert Chin, Simon Donoghue and Sarah Bertran for all the effort and time that they have put in to help give us beautiful music at our liturgies. They have all been a big help.

We are very fortunate to have had our Archbishop visit us this past week, but the fun doesn't stop there. This week we are going to be visited by the vocation director of the Archdiocese of Detroit, Fr. Tim Birney. Fr. Birney was ordained just one year before me, and also interestingly enough, we went to the same high school in Michigan (Bloomfield Hills Brother Rice). I know he is looking forward to coming here to our parish and visiting our school. Furthermore, I am certain his visit will be helpful because we do need to hear about and embrace the message concerning the importance of vocations, and I am also sure that there are more future vocations to the religious life and priesthood in our parish and school yet to come.

While Fr. Tim Birney is here, I will be in St. Lucia from Monday until Friday for the Pontifical Mission Society Conference. Please pray for us as we will be discussing not only our own projects and plans, but also how we are going to help Haiti in the wake of the earthquake disaster.

God Bless,
Fr. Paul Ballien
